ACADEMIC STANDARDS AND CURRICULA REVIEW COMMITTEE
Recommendation

SR-92-93-(83)229(ASCR)

That both the BA and BS degrees in Geography continue to be offered.

RATIONALE: It is common practice for both BA and BS degrees with no requirements differentiation to be offered by geography departments throughout the United States. Additionally, it appears sometimes beneficial to graduates entering master degree programs to have elected one or the other of designated bachelor degrees offered.
